I understand this is a volunteer position appointed by the Logan County Board of Commissioners and that in addition to reviewing applications, the Commissioners reserve the right to interview applicants. I recognize that a limited number of positions are available at any given time and that application in itself does not guarantee appointment. I understand this board meets on a regular basis and operates under specific bylaws. In the event I cannot effectively fulfill my obligations or effectively serve my term, I will tender my resignation in writing to the Board of Commissioners.
